2. Match them up!

Match the sentences from the story!

I'm taking your old clothes...

Wait!

Grandma knitted this jumper.

The slippers are still OK though.

Well the trousers are fine.

Oh, why did I...

I didn't take the clothes...

I found someone who really...

They still fit me.

Peter bought these for me.

...to the charity shop.

...grow so much?

It's my favourite.

...needed some new clothes!

I got these for Christmas.

...to the shop.

3. Where does it go?

Think about YOUR favourite clothes! Do they still fit you or have you grown too much like the boy? Write them in the correct box.

my favourite jumper	my favourite slippers	my favourite trousers	my favourite t-shirt
my favourite coat	my favourite shoes	my favourite hat	my favourite jeans

Still fits me!	I've grown too much!

4. Write and draw!

What is your most favourite item of clothing? What does it look like? Where is it from? Why is it your favourite? Then draw a picture!
